Our Committed Leadership

"We have reduced debt by more than $28 million, creating in excess of $14 million in liquidity. We are now working hard to return to a level of profitability that allows us to invest in assets: employees, facilities and equipment. We will maximize growth opportunities through domestic and international workforce and facility expansions. Our vision is simple: to be number one. Number one in safety, in quality and in customer, vendor and employee satisfaction."

Professionalism...Is In All We Do.

The Quality Companies management team is comprised of John Clay Nunnally, CEO; Scott P. LaGrange, Board; and Fortunato "Tony" Martinez, President.

Combined, the team of seasoned industry professionals boasts more than 85 years of oil and gas experience. The trio previously worked together as the management team at Performance Energy Services in Houma, Louisiana. Having built the company from the ground up, it is now an internationally recognized offshore and onshore construction, fabrication and electrical and instrumentation company.

The proven, high caliber management team brought about an astonishing change of direction in the fortunes of Quality Companies. Since taking control on May 23, 2019, the company has strengthened its financial position and operational flexibility. Quality Companies' leadership invests in its people by retaining and hiring the most experienced middle and upper-level management for its family of companies.

The Quality Companies management team is investing in its people, by retaining and hiring the most experienced middle and upper-level management for its family of companies - Quality Construction & Production (QCP), Quality Production Management (QPM), TRACO Production Services (TRACO) and Zadok Technologies (Zadok).

"Corporate management's focus is clear. To run a world class fabrication. construction, maintenance and E&I services group. With that comes a responsibility of executing a well-planned and professional strategy that will benefit employees and shareholders alike, making it evident that Quality is building an organization for the future. A growth plan that will not sacrifice longterm sustainability for shortterm gain. Our message to the world is clear: Quality Companies is active, growing and investing with an engaged and strong leadership team."
